Flow Affair is latest documentary of director Wolfgang Busch. Floguing is a new dance created by director Wolfgang and Aaron Enigma. Busch brought together members from the "House Ball" community (originators of the dance Voguing) and members from the Flagging community (originators of the dance Flagging and Fanning) to create a new dance, which has been named Floguing, so to make things easier let's say that Voguing + Flagging = Floguing. Super cool !

Tomorrow at LGBT there will be a fundraiser for completion of documentary, parts of the film will be shown, but mostly performances of those actually in the cast will be the main focus of the event. It will start at 7pm, and the Flow Affair after party will start at 10pm at Club Rebel. It looks like it will be a looooot of fun! <http://flowaffair.org/>
